RELEASE OF LIABILITY

The undersigned voluntarily signs this Release (hereinafter this "Release") this _____ day of _____, 20 ____.

WHEREAS, the Ontario County, New York Sheriff (hereinafter the "Sheriff" operates the Ontario County Jail (hereinafter the "Facility"); and

WHEREAS, in connection with the operation of the Facility, the Sheriff has established certain programs in which community volunteers teach and interact with inmates and former inmates in certain areas, all of which are generally aimed at helping inmates and former inmates gain the skills to better interact with family and others and/or to become self-sufficient and law-abiding citizens, some of which may continue after the inmate's release from the facility hereinafter individually a "Program"); and

WHEREAS, signing this Release is a requirement to participate as a volunteer in a Program, and I sign this Release so the Sheriff will permit me to participate as a volunteer.

NOW THEREFORE, I hereby agree as follows:

1. I understand that there is a possibility of injury to my person or property while in the Facility. I also understand that there is the potential danger of being taken hostage by inmates of a maximum security facility and that the policy of the Facility is not to recognize the hostages as a basis for bargaining with any inmate.
2. I have been informed about the nature of the Program in which I wish to volunteer and, after gaining knowledge of the Program, I still wish to be a volunteer.
3. In consideration of being permitted to participate as a volunteer in the Program Unit, I release and discharge the Sheriff, Ontario County, New York, their successors, agents, elected and appointed officials, deputies, and support employees (collectively hereinafter the "Released Parties") from any and all injuries, damages, costs and liability of any kind arising from or related to my participation in the volunteer program, whether or not caused or contributed by the actual or alleged negligence of any of the Released parties, including any and all members of an inmate with whom I work in connection with the Program. This covenant shall bind my estate, my dependents, my heirs, and my personal representatives.
4. In signing this Release, I rely wholly upon my own judgment and knowledge of the nature of my decision to participate in the volunteer Program. I have not been influenced to any extent whatsoever in signing this Release by any representative or statements made by any of the Released Parties.
5. I promise to maintain the dignity of the inmates with whom I associate, including respect for their privacy, property, family and friends. I agree to abide by the rules that the Sheriff or other representatives of the Facility may establish from time to time. I understand that the Sheriff, in the Sheriff's sole discretion, may discontinue the Program in which I am volunteering at any time, and also further recognize that the Sheriff in the Sheriff's sole discretion may revoke my status as a volunteer at any time without just cause.

I CERTIFY that I have read the foregoing Release of Liability, understand its terms, agree to all of them, and that I sign it voluntarily.

Any changes you wish to make to your program must be approved through this office beforehand.
- 2) All personnel working with inmates must familiarize themselves with the procedures, rules and regulations of this facility. This document is provided for that purpose. If, at any time you have questions or concerns, they should be addressed to the Corrections Lieutenant of Programs, Corrections Sergeant, or designated Educational/Program Officer.
- 3) Any person working with inmates must sign in and out through the jail reception/lobby area each time they report for a program.
- 4) It is important that you arrive and leave at the time you are scheduled. If you are unable to keep your appointment, please inform the Correctional facility immediately, by calling 585-396-4532.
- 5) Any confidential information regarding inmates must be obtained through the Corrections Lieutenant of Programs. This information will not be removed from the premises, nor discussed outside the facility. All correspondence regarding inmates, with agencies [Probation, Lawyers, and Mental Health] will be cleared through this office. There will be NO arrangements, press releases, interviews, speaking engagements, or other publicity concerning inmates or jail matters without prior approval.
- 6) You will not be allowed to bring any unnecessary items [purse, coat]. There are lockers located in the lobby in which you are to place those items until you are ready to leave. All items brought into this facility by you are subject to search. It is your responsibility to be sure you leave with the items you came in with.
- 7) Programs will take place in secure, authorized areas ONLY. Inmates are not to be left alone, or allowed to leave the person[s] he/she is working with. YOU are to be in charge of your program. Officers will check in to ensure your safety, and to see that there is no trouble. Any incident or problem is to be reported immediately. Any inmate not actively participating will be removed from the program.

The inmate will be solely responsible to lending agencies for items on loan. Inmates are not to remove items from the program room, unless both you and the officer have granted permission.
- 10) If you intend to leave items with the inmates, you must have prior approval, and the items must be receipted [through reception]. Items should be distributed one per interested inmate ONLY. Do not leave a supply of extra material, as they will be destroyed.
- 11) Inmates are not to pass items to other inmates while in your program, nor should they expect you to do so. For the safety and security of all, it is necessary to limit the flow of items within our facility. Inmates should not have any personal items outside of their housing area.
- 12) Inmates involved in programs are responsible for leaving the room in as clean a state as when they entered. Food and drinks are also prohibited during programs. This facility does not allow "coffee breaks" to inmates involved in programs. Such a practice could be construed as bribery.
- 13) Program personnel will not have access to the housing areas, without written permission from a Supervisor.

VOLUNTEER & PROFESSIONAL SERVICES APPLICATION

PROGRAMS PRE-ORIENTATION FOR VOLUNTEERS

Security MUST be the main concern of ALL persons who provide services to the incarcerated. While you are already well versed and even expert in your program specialty, it is NECESSARY that YOU now become well acquainted with various security considerations.

Listed below are some main security concerns in a correctional facility. Each one is explained briefly. This information is meant to supplement orientation provided to YOU by staff, and NOT be a substitute for it.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

NEVER give your personal information to inmates. They only need to know that you are here to present to them. They do not need to know where you live, your home telephone number or address, people in your household including family members, your income, marital status, or any other personal information. If you are asked for such information, politely inform that inmate that you do not discuss your personal business. Then, if the inmate persists, inform a Security Staff member immediately.

NOTHING IN – NOTHING OUT

This is an easy way to remember that you may not bring anything in for an inmate, or take anything out of the facility for an inmate, unless you have received prior written approval from the Chief Correction Officer. For example: chewing gum, retractable pens, mechanical pencils, paper, food, staples, paper clips, folders, rubber bands, tape, etc.

While you may consider these to be harmless items, many everyday items are considered to be contraband inside a correctional facility. Many of these can be manufactured into dangerous weapons (see below).

If an inmate asks you to bring in any money, weapons, drugs, alcohol, tobacco products, or incendiary devices...SAY NO, and immediately notify an Officer.

You may be asked to bring in, or take out verbal or written messages, make telephone calls, or contact various persons. This is also prohibited, unless prior written approval is obtained.

While it may be necessary for you to use certain items in your program that are considered contraband, they will have already been cleared for your use. Refer to section below titled, "Tools."

TOOLS

Any items that are needed to conduct your program are considered tools.

All tools MUST be safeguarded and accounted for at the beginning and at the end of each program session. The most common means of such accounting are recording items on the tool inventory control logs in the main lobby.

Prior to entering the facility, the Lobby Officer will look through your tools and supplies with you to ensure that only appropriate materials enter the facility.

It is necessary that you ensure the inmates use all of the tools properly, and if they refuse to, Security Staff must be notified.

If you discover any tools missing, either during the program or during your inventory, notify Security Staff immediately.

If you have any questions regarding tool inventory, or would like to bring additional tools later in your program sessions, please discuss the issue with the Shift Supervisor or Lieutenant of Programs.

RELIABILITY

Since you have volunteered, it is important that you follow through and present your program as scheduled. This is necessary to ensure consistency, as well as to provide a good example for inmates to follow.

If you are unable to present your program when scheduled, please call the facility at 585-396-4532, or 585-396-4848.

EXPECTATIONS

The inmates are expected to follow the rules and regulations of the facility while attending your program. One of your major responsibilities will be to conduct orderly sessions. Inmates who cause disruptions or refuse to follow your instructions will be removed as soon as you notify Security Staff.

INTERCOMS

Intercom buttons are located in each program room. You can summon officer assistance by pressing the button, which will alert the jail's Central Control that you need assistance. More instruction will be provided during your formal orientation.

COMMUNICATION

Always keep in mind that this is a correctional facility. Safety and security is the primary concern. Whenever in doubt – ASK.

Now that some basic concerns have been addressed, we want to remind you that your efforts are appreciated. We have learned that the real benefit to the inmates is as much the caring example you provide as sharing your time and knowledge. Programs provide the inmate population with enhanced skills while your commitment provides them with an example to follow. To some, you may be all that they have, and your program may be the only one they look forward to that makes his/her time in jail less stressful.
